and Support

A TRADITION OF EXCELLENCE

Chore-Time Brock International has a long-standing tradition of demonstrating innovative leadership in developing, marketing and supporting Chore-Time and Brock systems and solutions worldwide.

The CHORE-TIME® and BROCK® brand names are well known by premier producers everywhere. Both have an enduring reputation for quality, long-term value and exceptional performance.

We continually work to remain at the forefront of technology in the industries we serve – poultry, egg and grain production. And we retain our focus on anticipating and responding to these industries' changing needs with innovative and reliable solutions.

55+ YEARS OF LEADERSHIP THROUGH INNOVATION®

Founded in 1952, CTB has been dedicated to product innovation throughout its history. Our leadership includes a distinguished record of revolutionary equipment advances including important “firsts” such as:

- the first company to suspend broiler house equipment for easy floor cleaning;
- the first “open helix” (coreless) auger for feed delivery (called FLEX-AUGER®);
- the first automatic, round, pan-type poultry feeder;
- the first unitized cage for stronger, cost-saving design; and
- the first “one-pass” ventilation system (called TURBO HOUSE®) for better environmental control of egg production houses.

CTB was also among the first to develop an all-galvanized steel feed bin. We have continued our tradition of leadership through innovation with ongoing product development and patented inventions as well as pending patents.

A WORLD-CLASS EXPORTER

CTB is an experienced exporter with knowledgeable sales and service staff members, an outstanding customer service team, and a dedicated finance and credit group all focused on supporting our export customers.
